

Bio:

Ron White graduated from the 1st High School Drama Institute at the Catholic University of Washington DC and then continued his education with accredited private tutors.

After touring the East Coast, he came to Europe as Hud on the European Tour of the musical „Hair“ and decided to stay. A decision he never regretted to this day.

Born for the stage, the artist casts a spell over his audience and gives his listeners unforgettable moments. As a songwriter, he also spreads strong emotions with his music. There is always a glimmer of hope in the artist's songs, even when the piece is about a breakup.

Ron White celebrated his European TV premiere on Tele 5, where he sang a cover of „Fly Like An Eagle“.

Ron White appears at all major events such as the „Federal Press Ball“ and the leading trade fairs, as well as at elite private events and has toured throughout Europe on numerous club tours.

Ron White wrote lyrics for a song titled "The Game" and donated all proceeds to the Children's Cancer Organization. He also gave his voice to inspire and promote the Cologne Rwanda Project - Song for Ruanda”.

Writing for the young American group “4 the Cause”, which was released worldwide, started Ron White`s successful songwriting career.

The artist also began singing in German and hit the charts with Season 1 Big Brother star Verena.

He sang back vocals for Thomas Anders, Enrique Iglesias and Michael Bolton to name a few. Ron White also appeared on “The Voice of Germany”.
